

RETREAT OF MARSHAL MASSENA, N^{os} 1 & 2.

Arrival of the Advanced Guard of the Allies in presence of the French Army near POMBAL 10th March 1811.

REFERENCES.

- A. General position of the main body of the French Army on the 9th of March 1811, when reconnoitred by Lord Wellington from where the vedettes of the Advanced Guard of the Allied army were stationed.
- B. Position of the Advanced Guard of the Allied army in the afternoon of the 9th of March 1811. N.B. The 1st (Royal) Regiment of Dragoons, the 1st Hussars of the King's German Legion, and the Light Division of Infantry arrived by the road from Thomar. A detachment of the 16th Light Dragoons arrived at the same time by the road from Leiria.