

REFERENCES.

- A. General position of the French Army on the 15th of March, it having crossed the River Alva by Ponte de Marcella on the 17th.
- a. A body of French Infantry sent to guard the fords of the Alva near the village of Sarzedo, when part of the Allied Cavalry moved forward in the direction of Arganil on the 18th of March.
- B. General position of the Allies on the 18th of March. Head Quarters at the village of Pombares.

Scale. 2 Miles

Movements to dislodge the FRENCH ARMY
 from its positions on the right bank of the ALVA.
 on the 18th of March, 1811.

Surveyed and Drawn by the late Major Parronpoint D.S.O. M. Gen.
 and finished by Major Sir T.L. Mitchell, R.E.