

Top view. Sketch of the face of the country about Guarda, taken from the plateau north of the village of Rosamunda in which the exact outline was obtained by measuring the vertical and horizontal angles whereby any features therein may be found on the Plan by projecting the horizontal angle indicated between that point and the Tower of Guarda.

Mafsen's Retreat N° IX

Movement against the French Troops occupying the
POSITION OF GUARDA,
on the 29th March 1811.

- XX Part of the French Army in Position
- Z.L Part of D^r in Retreat
- A.A The light Division and M General Anson's Brigade of Light Cavalry
- B.B Col. Barbacenas Brigade of Portuguese Cavalry and the Portuguese Infantry (Militia) commanded by Colonel Wilson
- N.B The limits of this Sketch do not admit of showing the situation of the Troops under Colonel Trant (Portuguese Militia)
- C The 6th Division
- D The Artillery of the 6th and of the 3rd Divisions escorted by one Battalion of the latter
- E Left Brigade of the 3rd Division
- F Center Brigade of D^r
- G Right Brigade of D^r with a Brigade of Mountain Guns
- H.H The 5th Division in reserve
- I A Brigade of Cavalry under Colonel Hawker in reserve
- K The 1st Division
- L.L.L The 7th Division Villa Corca is out of the Sketch
- M A Brigade of British 9th Foot, and a Brigade of Portuguese 3rd Foot under Capt^l Lawson

Drawn on Zinc by George Barnard from the original Sketches drawn by Major Sir T.L. Mitchell, K^t