The first in a series of reports of a committee of the House of Representatives on the subject of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

From your report on the subject of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States, I have learned that you have given careful consideration to the various proposals and have reached the conclusion that they are not advisable.
